TOWNE'S FIRST AND LAST IN THE SENATE.

It is a relief to the better part of our nature to get away occasionally from the sordid and base that continues to be in a United States Congress flowing in streams from subsidy bills, river and harbor appropriations and kindred steals which furnish themes for the avaricious and mean in spirit in a United States Senate.

The degradation and filth consequent upon iniquitous appropriations to line the pockets of deserving appropriators of public money, who in time of need came to the rescue to prevent a removal of the gross and covetous from the environment o the United States treasure is now and then removed—while the more pure and elevating is given an airing on the floor of the Senate.

Senator Chandler and others of kindred spirit possessed of moral stamina and integrity dared in the citadel of corruption to declare an appropriation a steal in plain terms when it was covered by a heading "River and Harbor Appropriation." Then again C. A. Towne in the Senate in his first and last speech as Senator comes forward and declares that America' morale are blunted by lust while he arraigns the administration on its imperial war course in burning and eloquent words.

Members of the house stand on the floor of the Senate chamber for three hours to hear and learn from clean lips through patriotic language when expressing pure thoughts that came from a soul bathed in the light of heaven while it sees and feels man's inhumanity to man in the grossness there is in Congress and in the administration caused by the worship of Mammon in high places, while the altars of the living God are made to do service to the inhuman monster at the bidding of Mark Hanna.

When the heart gives forth the higher sentiments there are in it, men listen, learn and keep in retentive memory truths that have in them "peace on earth, good will to men" while the niggerdly and vile seek a hiding place on the barren sands of an avericious soul where desolation and death to humane feeling and love of liberty is supreme.

Mr. Towne, while moving on the outworks and defenses of the enemy of mankind now intrenched, enthroned and worshiped at Washington and in many other places in the United States, used the following language:

"It will prove a quickening appeal to the ancient spirit of the republic, or its rejection must dedicate the twentieth century to a reaction fatal to free institutions.

"We were in alliance with the Filipinos, an alliance sought by ourselves, availed of by us for our own advantage and finally, to our everlasting shame in the estimation of honorable men, repudiated by us when we found it no longer necessary and when lust of empire had so blunted our moral sensibilities that we could mount from an act of perfidy to the grand larceny of a nation.

"No district is really pacified. We hold one-five-hundredth part of the archipelago, and hold the ground through our troops standing on it. And this after two years of wasting war."

The galleries were filled to their capacity by people anxious to hear the orator whose life is devoted to the elevation of man, which is of more value to the world than the gold millions of Transvaal, Klondike or the fine woods and other tropical values in the Philippines. There is grandeur in a life that can rise above the greediness of money to go out in its power in defense of the weak who are seeking the dearest boon known to human desire, which is liberty of action made known through the right of self government.

Man instinctively seeks liberty, which has been a source of contention from his earliest history to secure it against the powers of the earth, which have oppressed him and led him captive to their ambition. A desire for liberty is inherent, and is a part of him, and when deprived of it he is oppressed in his nature which the greatest kindness cannot relieve when he is in slavery, which is ever present when he is made obedient to the will of others. Patrick Henry comprehended the true situation of the human soul and expressed it, which was echoed by Mr. Towne on the floor of the United States Senate, as follows:

"There is no evidence that any strong native pro-American element has any existence at all. The Filipinos are answering the cry of extermination or surrender with another cry which has come echoing down through all our history—'Liberty or death.'"

When will we learn to do unto others as we would that others do unto us? These words express the sense conveyed by the master whose language was quoted by Republicans in the early history of the party, till it was used by the profane as a by-word; but the quotation is heard no more on the wings of the morning or in the shades of the evening, when the voice of conscience calls them to their closets. It may be Mammon has concluded he is fooling the Almighty by changing the subject.

ROCK SHARP'S DEPARTMENT

The Journal's Expert Will Answer Queries Free of Charge.

J. R., Reno—If the young lady declares she will not marry you unless you stop prospecting you should quit at once. If you had been bred in Old Kentucky as was the Rock Sharp you would never think, as you seem to be thinking, of weighing sulphurets against love. He who would prefer the cold, ignoble dollar to a warm, endearing kiss; who would like better to possess the transmuting touch of Midas than to thrill beneath the dainty caresses of rosy fingers, is not worthy to be called a man. If you disregard the lady's wishes she will most certainly conclude that you are of a base, antimonial nature, very hard to work and consequently of no value for matrimonial purposes. I, myself, do not regard you as a free milling proposition and am of the opinion that you should be thoroughly roasted as a preliminary to other operations. Give your blankets to an Indian and sell your team of jacks, reserving only yourself.

G. T. H., Lovelock—A prospector is a man who is unable to see his own finish.

D. I. G., Long Valley—When the wise man you mention spoke of ore being found in Kidneys he was not thinking of the kind you possess but of mineral kidneys. See Doc Redman. He has had experience with both kinds.

G. H., Reno—The words concerning which you require are Spanish mining terms. "Veta Madre" means the same as our "mother lope." "Cuerpo alta" means hanging wall and "cuerpo bajo", footwall.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 30.—Charles C. Wallace, known to his friends as "Black" Wallace, died suddenly of heart failure on a stage in Mariposa county this morning. Wallace left the Palace Hotel, where he has been living for some years, Monday to visit a mine in Mariposa county in which he was interested jointly with George Crocker and N. T. Smith.

Nothing was heard from him until the news of his death came tonight. His wife was formerly the wife of the late Attorney Beatty of Nevada. She resides in Nevada City.

LITTLE LOCAL BREVITIES

Items of Street and Town too Brief for Separate Heads.

Hyman Cohn spent yesterday in Carson.

The Elks will give a reception Friday evening.

Sam P. Davis was a visitor to Reno yesterday.

W. C. Williams returned from Carson yesterday.

Louis Dean has returned from a visit to San Francisco.

Professor J. M. Wilson has returned from a visit to Cheyenne, Wyoming.

James Kearns of the telephone company came up from below yesterday morning.

Henry A. Butters came up from San Francisco yesterday. He will continue on to Constantia to-day.

The report of the grand jury will be made next Monday. It is rumored that it will contain interesting reading.

Wool Growers, Attention!

A meeting of the Wool Growers' Association of Nevada will be held at RENO, NEV., Saturday, Feb. 9, 1901, at 2 p. m., in Judge Cheney's office. As business of much importance will come before this meeting, a large attendance of members of the above association is much desired, by order of

D. C. WHEELER, President.
P. L. FLANIGAN, Secretary.

The Next Attraction.

The patrons of the McKissick's opera house Feb. 12 will see for the first time here, Wm. A. Brady and Joe. Grismer's production of that funny three act farce, "A Stranger in a Strange Land."

Lem Allen's Bill Misconstrued.

Hon. Lem Allen, the war-horse of the Assembly and patriarch of that body, is being jumped right and left by the press of the State because of a bill he introduced which lowers the salaries of State officers.

Where the papers made their mistake is in the allegation that Mr Allen's bill provides for the payment of salaries out of the school fund.

Inquiry made by the JOURNAL reveals the fact that the measure stipulates that only the salary of the Surveyor-General shall be paid out of the school fund. This seems perfectly proper as his duties are largely concerned with school lands. Let the false apprehension concerning Mr. Allen's bill be corrected.

A Department for Prospectors.

The "Rock Sharp's" department in the JOURNAL was begun in a spirit of jest, our friend, J. F. Stalling, taking time between his trips to the hills to write out a few joshes on the local prospectors.

A request, however, has come to this office to publish a department devoted to answering queries propounded by prospectors and miners. The JOURNAL has arranged with Professor Jackson and other local authorities and is prepared to make a stagger at answering questions relating to mining, metallurgy and mineral laws.

Now, don't all of you speak at once.
